END NOTES

Director's Note:

I would like to start off by thanking my amazing cast and crew who worked tirelessly on this amazing production in such a short amount of time. The students of Rancho Cucamonga High School are astounding and professional, and I thank them endlessly. A special shoutout to my stage managers- Montana, Ryan, and Chloe, who were the other parts of my brain during this entire process.

I want to thank my family and friends for their support of me during this stressful yet amazing time. It is because of your support that I have been able to accomplish my dreams. I could not have done it without the shoulders to lean on.

Peter and the Starcatcher is about adventure, friendship, and the possibility of dreams. For the adults in the audience, I hope our production gives you the opportunity to remember the magic of childhood and the power of imagination.

Sit back and allow our cast to take you on a magical adventure.
Don't forget- clap if you believe.

-James Loudermilk
